

Screw-up Princess and Skillful Huntsman Trilogy: Book Two A Fairy Tales of the Open Road Novel Modern day fairy-tale princess Taylor Hatfield has problems. One: heâ€™s a guy. Two: heâ€™s Sleeping Beauty, the most useless princess in existence. Throw in his true love, Corentin Devereaux, a huntsman descended from child-eating witches, and Taylorâ€™s younger brother, Atticus?this generationâ€™s Snow White?who tried to kill him. That didnâ€™t go so hot. For two years, Taylor and Corentin live their Happily Ever After. But Corentin is cursed to lose his memory every seven days, including his life with Taylor?a painful reminder that he canâ€™t provide for the man he loves. Taylor insists Corentin has the strength to succeed, and when Taylor discovers a way to break the curse, he is more than willing to pay the cost. When an enchanted blizzard devastates Corentinâ€™s hometown of New Orleans, Taylor is convinced Atticus is to blame and grows desperate to find him amid the Big Easy turned frozen wasteland. Corentin believes Taylor is chasing a ghost while he chases the ghosts of his own past. Old tensions scratch open scars, leaving both to wonder if they have each otherâ€™s best interests at heart. The clock is ticking until Corentin loses his memory and the rabbit hole goes so deep they may never come out.
