

FIVE QUESTS FOR THE MAN WITH ANYBODYS FACE. For the last quarter of the 20th Century the Voice, first of his generations Independent Operators, fought to make the system work better. Here are some of the highs and one abysmal low in his career. Crime of the Arts: Mix a sociopath rich kid with a paramilitary cult leader. Add a damsel in distress. The Voice rips through a literal mountain of trouble to find a gallery of horror. (Complete here, for the first time.) Explosive Justice: Another Independent Operator gets called in to back up the Voice. Can the two stop domestic terrorists ready to kill in wholesale lots? Grand Opening - Under Fire: Wrong place. Wrong time. The Voice goes to make a deposit at a bank, then has trouble with his withdrawal. Plus two more adventures. Sixty-thousand words of high powered adventure.
