

Long Story Short is an exciting new evangelism series designed to tell the story of the Bible from Genesis to Jesus. It has been written and developed by a small team of church planters that saw the need to develop a resource for those that didn't have a Christian worldview. Each writer brought their own unique experiences and talents, resulting in a writing collective that delivers a well thought out presentation of the story of the Bible. This Leaders Guide for the new evangelism series Long Story Short assists leaders in every aspect of running a course. It contains essential information on how to plan and lead a group and includes the group program. It also contains well-researched suggested answers to some of the most frequently asked questions about the story of the Bible.
